ANNUAL INDUSTRY AWARDS 2022

TERMS & CONDITIONS OF PARTICIPATING

1. Participation is free and it is open to all South Africans citizens and residents. Membership of SABBEX/BSA is not a pre-requisite. See each category for the type of nomination expected.
2. Nominations can be made by individuals or businesses in the boat building sector or by anyone working the marine industry.
3. Multiple nominations can be made by one person/company, but each must be unique.
4. Nominations must include the mandatory fields on the nomination form and should include a detailed explanation as to why they should win the award.
5. It is requested that nominations include: Letters of support for the nominee's achievements and a high-resolution photograph of the nominee (only jpg, png, gif, tiff and bmp format, 300 dpi preferred and at least 1200 x 600 pixels).
6. Judges may reallocate a nomination to a different category if they find it will be better placed there.
7. No SABBEX Board member, staff member or third-party consultant or person involved in judging or administering the competition may stand for nomination.
8. All shortlisted nominations will be featured at the Annual Industry Awards Dinner on the 18th May 2022.
9. All shortlisted nominees will avail themselves for a short interview to be taken by a Third Party prior to the Awards Dinner.
10. A press release, social media, video and IBI coverage will be circulated immediately following the Awards Dinner.

JUDGING CRITERIA

1. Judges will draw on their extensive experience in the boat building industry and the information and motivations submitted in the nominations.
2. Judges will look for inspirational examples of service and work in the boat building industry.

AWARD CATEGORIES

All the awards are open to individuals who have made outstanding contributions in the following areas:

Excellence in Boat Building

Nominees for this award will have demonstrated excellence in marine manufacturing. A hands-on artisan who works to exacting international standards and seeks to improve product quality and processes. Nominees will be problem solvers with outstanding practical skills and leadership.

Women

This award seeks to recognise a woman in the industry who is driving change and in doing so, breaking down barriers and creating new possibilities for the next generation. Nominees will be inspirational women who champion the participation of women in the boating workforce.

Rising Star

Individuals in this category will be aged 35 or under and they will demonstrate a significant impact in the company they work for. This could include procurement, design, boat building, management or any other boating discipline. The Rising Star category seeks to recognise young people who have made an impact.

Project Manager/Supervisor

This award recognises project managers and supervisors who have had a positive impact on production processes. They will demonstrate tangible benefits such as improved efficiencies, streamlined processes, cost savings, improved quality and good staff morale. They will be natural leaders who see the bigger picture.

Customer Care

Individuals in this category will have demonstrated excellent customer service. Nominees will have provided outstanding service to their clients, going above and beyond the call of duty. This could include repairs, retail, brokering or any other aspect of the boating industry in South Africa.

Safety and Environment

Nominees for this award will demonstrate a commitment to creating a safer working environment and reducing the environmental impact of production. Efforts at sustainability, recycling and environmental stewardship will also be considered.

Excellence in Boat Design

This award recognises an individual in a drawing office who has made an outstanding contribution to the boat design process. Nominees will be people who "think out of the box" and provide design solutions and efficiencies either in a boat yard or in a design office or naval architectural firm.

Lifetime Commitment

We invite nominations for an artisan who has made boat building their life. They will have made a significant impact in the companies they have worked for, in many different facets of the business.
